To: All WestJet Cargo Customers
From: WestJet Cargo / ELS Marketing LP
Date: October 9, 2008
Subject: Domestic Pets & Reptile Seasonal Embargos - Customer Notice

---

Please be advised ELS Marketing LP in conjunction with WestJet Airlines will impose a cargo embargo on all shipments of Domestic Pets effective December 11, 2008 through January 10, 2009 inclusive.

This embargo will be strictly enforced by ELS Marketing LP and WestJet Cargo handling agents. This embargo will be in place to ensure that WestJet does not jeopardize the comfort and safety of pets during the busy holiday season due to limited cargo capacity.

We will continue to accept shipments of live commercial cargo from credit account holders (i.e. shipments of Tropical Fish, Baby Chicks, Turley Poults, Birds, Crickets, Rabbits, Rodents and Lobsters).

Due to the high passenger volumes during the holiday season, it is essential that proper booking procedures are strictly adhered to.

ELS Marketing LP / WestJet Cargo will only accept live commercial shipments with advanced bookings on routings where space permits.

In addition to Domestic Pets, there is also a Seasonal embargo regarding Live Reptiles. This embargo is scheduled to be in effect from November 1, 2008 through April 1, 2009 inclusive.
